DETAILED ACTION

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Rejections not maintained are withdrawn.

Response to Amendment

3. Claims 1-2, 6-12 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tucker et al. (US 5498476) either individually or, in the alternative, in view of WO 97/05206, for the reasons set forth in section 5 of Paper No. 7; section 3 of Paper No. 11; and the attached NOTE in Advisory of Paper No. 14, together with the following additional observations.

It is noted that Applicants failed to respond to the issue raised in the Advisory of Paper No. 14. As such, the Examiner reiterates (see attached NOTE in Advisory) that Applicants' response and Mr. Yoshio Nakagawa's Declaration appear to be persuasive that the multi-step polymerized and mechanically blended propylene/ethylene copolymers are structurally (or morphologically) different (Response, page 4, second paragraph). However, the Examiner notes that Applicants' Response is deficient in that Applicants merely stated that the composition ratio of CATALLOY KS-353P is 30 wt% and 70 wt% ^{EPR} ethylene-propylene rubber (Response, page 3, last paragraph), as such neither the Response, nor the Declaration by Mr. Yoshio Nakagawa has sufficiently disclosed the composition ratio of ethylene and propylene in EPR, which renders the comparison study inadequate, i.e., it fails to illustrate that the tests are carried out under comparable conditions.

4. This is a continuation of Applicants' earlier Application No. 09/705838. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
